

South Central State Bank is Here to Help

We Want to Help Protect Your Personal Information

- South Central State Bank employees will identify themselves when on the phone with you. Call your local branch to ensure you are familiar with who you are talking to.
- We rarely ask for personal information over the phone.
- Do not hesitate to contact South Central State Bank if you received a suspicious call regarding your finances.

Protect Yourself From Scammers

Reminders:

- Do not give out any personal information over the phone, especially your Social Security number or bank account number.
- Scammers will impersonate many different identities, agencies, or companies.
- Scammers will present a scenario in which you need to act fast.
- Scammers will use important topics like past due taxes, grandchildren or loved ones needing help, etc.
- When in doubt, hang up and contact individuals (IRS, loved ones, etc.) presented in the scenario.
